League Roundup

The first leg of the Pepsi Mixed League finished up in January and the Kevin Gouthro rink took top spot. Gouthro was in a battle for first with the Coralie Ayre rink into the home stretch of that league and held a one point lead heading into the final game. A win in that final game would have locked up first for the Gouthro rink but they weren't able to pull it off and lost, leaving the door open for Ayre who, with a win in her final game could take over first place and snatch the title away. Fortunately for Gouthro, the John Donovan rink played spoiler for them, beating the Ayre rink on the final night, leaving them one point behind in second place. Joining skip Kevin in the title are George Plumridge, Kelley Laughlin and Janet Gallivan. Congratulations to you all.

After the completion of the first half, teams were shuffled and a new schedule started. That schedule has just gotten underway so it's way too early to pick any favorites. Julia Cormier has taken over draw master duties from Cal Thistle as Cal will be leaving to go south pretty soon. She has done a great job in making up even teams and accommodating everyone's schedules as best as possible.

The Don Cherry's Team Entry League is almost into the second half of its schedule and three teams have started to pull away from the pack. The Gordie Cormier, Coralie Ayre and Chris 'Slugger' MacLeod rinks seem to have started to distance themselves from the other teams just slightly and may be the three teams to watch heading down the stretch of the regular season. However, there are a number of makeup games from the first round and there are still lots of games to play in round two so we may see any number of legitimate contenders make a run for the regular season title. They will have their work cut out for them however as the three current front runners are looking strong in that league thus far.

The Old Triangle Men's League is well into round two and there has been some developments among the leaders. Heading into the second round the Kevin Gouthro rink held a slim one point lead over Gordie Cormier and had two points over Wally MacDonald and Gary Landry. While Gouthro has been perfect in round two with three wins, a loss by Cormier to the Brian Laughlin rink, a loss by MacDonald to Cormier and a loss by Landry have all resulted in Gouthro stretching that lead to three points over Cormier and four over MacDonald and Landry. With only four games remaining, that lead is a lot bigger than it sounds. The only thing that may hurt Gouthro is that he still has to play all three teams that are chasing him. There are no easy games for any team in this league and even though Gouthro has a lead now that can easily disappear in the four remaining games. After the regular season is finished, the Men's League will have a playoff round.

The Schooner Junior Program continues to play on Saturdays but the growing numbers in the program have necessitated a change in the schedule and the splitting of the kids into two groups instead of one. Now, the half hackers will go on from 11:45am to 12:45pm and the full ice curlers will be on from 1:00pm to 2:00pm. Any time the junior curling is moved to Sunday due to spiels or other events at the club, the time will be 10:00am for all kids as it has been in the past. It's nice to see the junior program at the club flourishing. Junior curlers are the future of the sport in the area. We are still looking for another coach for the program as well. Anyone who might be interested can contact Nadine Neima-Drover or anyone on the Schooner executive.

All Schooner members are reminded that there is Matinee Curling on Friday afternoons from 1-3 at the club. It's just drop in curling and teams are made from whoever is in attendance. It's open to all members so if you have some free time any Friday, drop by.

The Annual Schooner Sweetheart Women's Spiel is set to go at the club from February 8-9. It's open to any women curler and you can sign up as single entry or as a team. No curling experience or club membership is necessary. In past years we have seen curlers from Schooner, Sydney and Baddeck Curling Clubs and we also have had many ladies who were curling for the very first time. Cost is $30 per player or $20 if you are a Schooner member. Each player is guaranteed three, six-end games, there is a wine and cheese reception on Friday night and dinner, catered by Tommy Young and compliments of donations by the Schooner men, on Saturday. There are prizes for all curlers as well. The spiel is sponsored once again by local business Compu Clone Computer Solutions of Sydney.

This spiel has become one of the premier events on the Schooner Calendar, second only to the cash spiel as the highlight of the spiel season. There's always lots of great curling, great food and loads of fun. Why not plan to join us and take some of that in on the weekend of February 8 and 9. See you there.

2 on 2 Spiel January

The Schooner Club held the first of three scheduled 2 on 2 events on January 4 and 5 at the club. A full roster of 16 teams took part, this time being picked via a random draw of the thirty two players who signed up as single entries. In the past, these spiels have been run as team entry. The spiel was restricted to Schooner members.

Play got underway on Friday evening with all sixteen teams scheduled to see their first action on day one. Winners would stay in the main bracket while losers would drop to the consolation bracket. In this double knockout format, a first game loss on Friday meant teams could not lose again or they would be eliminated.

Play got underway Saturday morning with games in the Main bracket starting at 11am and continued all day, leading up to the championship games in each bracket that were scheduled for Saturday evening. After a weekend of great curling and a lot of close games, the championship game in the main division came down to Richard Lorway and Cal Thistle taking on Gary Landry and Brian Laughlin while in the consolation championship there was Russell Fitzgerald and Greg Wall taking on Joe Erickson and Rick Windsor. The Game between Lorway/Thistle and Landry/Laughlin for the overall championship was won handily by Lorway/Thistle but the consolation game was decided by a draw to the button. Both team members would have one rock and the cumulative distance would be calculated. In the end it was Russell Fitzgerald and Greg Wall taking the win with the best team score, even though Rick Windsor had the best draw and pretty much covered the button with his stone.

A big thank you to everyone who took part in the spiel, to the spiel committee for another great job organizing and running the event and to everyone else who helped out in any way. Thanks to Tommy Young for once again providing great food for the event and to everyone else who helped out in any way.

Everyone is reminded that there will be another 2 on 2 event held early in March on the 1st and 2nd. Watch the Schooner Website and the club's bulletin board for more information and a registration sheet. Plan to join us and see how much fun 2 on 2 curling can be.

The annual Schooner Cash Spiel was held at the club From January 18-20 and was another huge success. The maximum number of sixteen teams competed all weekend before we crowned an overall champ on Sunday afternoon. Curlers came from the Schooner Club, the Sydney Curling Club, the Strait Area Club and as far away as Halifax.

Play got underway on Thursday night to avoid a logjam in the draw on Friday. In these two early games, the Coralie Ayre rink took out the Chris Sluggier MacLeod rink and skip Wally MacDonald and his team were victorious over the team skipped by Rick Windsor. Play in round one resumed on Friday evening with the first draw starting early at 6pm. This draw saw the Todd Mercer rink from Sydney defeat Keith MacEachern of the Schooner and Kurt Roach defeated Philip Edwards, both of these rinks coming from the Sydney Curling Club. MacEachern's team was a late entry after one of the sixteen teams originally entered was forced to withdraw. The 8pm draw would see three Schooner teams take the ice with Brian Laughlin taking on Gordie Cormier and John Donovan going up against Kenny Keough of Sydney. Cormier and Donovan would be winners and remain in the top bracket. The final draw of the night would see Chris Granchelli take on Bubbs Stone in one game while the second game had Sebastien LeFort taking on Donnie MacCuspig of the Strait Area Club. Granchelli and MacCuspig won those matches and stayed in the top division. On Friday night, everyone was not only treated to great curling but some great entertainment as well when the club hosted an open mic night that featured Owen MacLellan. A good crowd was on hand as Owen and a few other performers played a good mix of contemporary music and some old favorites that kept the spectators and curlers entertained.

Play got underway early on Saturday at 8:00 am with the first games of the 'B' division. Play in that division continued in the 10:00 am draw as well. Winners of these games would move into the semi final of that division with a chance to play in the 'B' final and a guaranteed cash prize. In the early draw, Rick Windsor defeated the Chris 'Slugger' MacLeod rink and Philip Edwards punched his ticket to a semi-final with a win over Keith MacEachern. The other 'B' semi final would see Brian Laughlin take on Sebastien LeFort after Laughlin defeated Kenny Keough and LeFort won over Bubbs Stone. The 'B' semi was at 4pm on Saturday and saw Windsor defeat Edwards and LeFort defeat Laughlin, earning both teams a spot in the 'B' Final on Sunday.

Play in the 'A' division got going at 12 noon on Saturday. All eight winners in draw one would be fighting it out to see who could make it to the semi-final and eventually the final game of the top division and a chance at the overall championship. The first draw would have Coralie Ayre taking on Wally MacDonald and Todd Mercer facing Kurt Roach. Draw two would immediately follow and had Gordie Cormier facing John Donovan and Kris Granchelli up against Donnie MacCuspig. Ayre and Roach won and would face off in a semi final later on Saturday while Cormier and Granchelli were successful into making it into the second semi. The losers of these games would continue play but now in the 'C' division which would see its first games played at 6pm on Saturday. In those games, Wally Macdonald was a winner over Todd Mercer and Donnie MacCuspig defeated John Donovan to stay alive and play on Sunday in the 'C' semi final. On the last draw of the night, scheduled for 8pm but running about an hour behind, Gordie Cormier and Kurt roach emerged as the two teams that would play for the title on Sunday in the 'A' division.

Saturday night was also a party night at the club when DJ Jimmy took the stage to play some of his over 700,000 song selections and keep the crowd dancing all night long. Again, a good amount of people stuck around until the late hours and partied the night away.

Play once again got underway early on Sunday with the first games of play in the 'D' division scheduled for 9am. Two rinks from the Sydney Curling Club, Kenny Keough and Bubbs Stone, were set face off in one match while two Schooner Clubs, Chris 'Slugger' MacLeod and Keith MacEachern were meeting up in the other. Unfortunately, MacLeod couldn't ice a team at the early hour and forfeited the match to MacEachern who would meet Bubbs Stone in the 'D' final after he was victorious over Keough. The 11am draw on Sunday was slated for the 'C' semi and saw Coralie Ayre take out Wally MacDonald and Donnie MacCuspig defeat Kris Granchelli to make it to Sunday afternoon's final which was scheduled to go off right after the semi final match. MacCuspig and Ayre took the ice again and had a great game, coming down to a final shot that MacCuspig had to win the match. He was a little heavy on his shot and it didn't curl quite enough, allowing Ayre to steal the end and win the 'C' title. The 'D' Division title was being contested at the same time on the other sheet and saw Keith MacEachern score early and often against the Bubbs Stone rink and jump out to a commanding lead after only three ends. After that, MacEachern went to a defensive style and Stone couldn't mount much of a comeback so he ended up shaking hands early. Joining Skip Coralie Ayre in winning the 'C' title were Drew and Marcie Bungay and Billy Ayre while Donnie MacCuspig was joined by Mike MacNamara, Jill Landry and Meranda Fitzgerald. Jill and Meranda are the daughters of long time and well known Schooner member Russell Fitzgerald. The 'D' champion, Skip MacEachern, was joined by Julia Cormier, Georgette Sparkes and Bernadette Cormier while the runners up were Bubbs Stone, Andy Pyke, Dan Tobin and Tyler MacKeigan.

The main event, the 'A' final, was next and had two strong rinks competing to take home the overall title. Gordie Cormier and Kurt Roach would take the ice to see who could come out on top. In the 'B' final there was the Rick Windsor rink and the Sebastien Lefort rink facing off, both very good teams as well with Lefort having won the overall event title in past tries. The Windsor rink struggled a bit early and fell behind and then fell victim to some bad luck which allowed Lefort to extend his lead. Lefort ended up winning the shortened game and taking the 'B' division crown. The 'A' division final was a hard fought and very close game in the early going. In the first end, Kurt Roach made a fantastic runback shot to get three points and looked like he was on his way to an easy game but Cormier's rink fought back and tied the game up after three ends and stole a point to take the lead in the fourth when Roach tried to make another very difficult shot for a big score but, this time, was not successful. Roach scored in the fifth to regain the lead but Cormier put together a big end in six to score a pile and take the lead for good, winning the 'A' title and the overall championship. Joining Cormier in the win were Kevin Gouthro, Stephen Leslie and Carrie Cress. Skip Roach had Mark MacNamara, Travis Stone and Robin Nathanson. In the 'B' Division, winner Sebastien LeFort was aided by Nick Mackenzie, Thomas Mosher and Ryan Ferguson while Skip Rick Windsor was joined by Mel Windsor, Rick Billard and Ceilidh Forrest. Overall, a great showing by Schooner rinks, taking three of four divisions, and a great weekend of curling overall with lots of close, exciting games and great shot making by everyone.

A big thank you to all the teams who took part, to all the spectators and partiers who filled the club all weekend, to Stephen Leslie and the spiel committee for organizing and running the event and to spiel sponsors Firestop and Jeff Ellis Enterprises for their generous support. Thank goes out to Tommy Young for catering all weekend and helping to keep the energy levels of the curlers high with a variety of delicious food, to everyone who brought something on Friday to add to the selection, to Owen MacLellan and DJ Jimmy for providing the tunes for the parties, to the ice crew who worked hard all weekend to keep the ice in top shape, to the bartenders, housekeeping and to everyone else who helped out in any way and helped make this another great Cash Spiel at the Schooner. We hope to see everyone back in 2020 for the next event.

The weekend of January 25-27 was a busy one for Schooner Curlers as a total of five teams hit the road, three competing at the Ship Hector spiel in New Glasgow and two ladies teams competing at the Bling Fling in the Rings at the Sydney Curling Club.

The Ship Hector Spiel, a big event in the New Glasgow area that is run at four curling clubs in the area, has been a popular destination for Schooner rinks in the past number of years. This year, three teams made the trip to take on teams from all across the province and beyond. Normally sporting a full complement of over 50 teams, entries were down this year at the Hector with only forty rinks competing. With a grueling schedule of three, eight end games on Saturday for most teams, many of the Schooner rinks take a fifth player to give everyone a break somewhere along the way.

The Wally MacDonald rink was made up of skip MacDonald, Sid Murray, Bryant Cormier, Dave Boudreau and Billy Farr. The Gordie Cormier rink took Stephen Leslie, Brian Laughlin, Kelley Laughlin and Terry Marshall along with skip Cormier. Marshall, who curls out of Sydney, was a late addition when team regular Kevin Gouthro had to drop out due to a death in his family. The final Schooner entry was made up of club members Coralie and Billy Ayre and they were joined by Drew and Marcie Bungay. This foursome had also competed together in the Schooner Cash Spiel the weekend before.

Play began on Friday night with all teams seeing action in one of two draws, either at 7:30 or 9:30. Your first game is determined by the number you draw at a reception that is held earlier in the evening.

The Wally MacDonald rink started out playing at the biggest club in the area, the Bluenose in New Glasgow, and were winners of their first match. The next morning they ran into a strong team from Berwick, NS, who were the defending champs of the event from last year. MacDonald lost that match but did give the defending champs a good game. He went on to win the remaining two games of the day, sporting an overall record of 3-1 and would play on Sunday morning in the Westville division semi final.

Gordie Cormier's rink also got off to a strong start, winning their first two games. In one of those games, they overcame a big deficit to tie and went on to win with a draw to the button. In their third game they appeared to be on the road to another victory, heading into the final end with a three point lead. Their opponents were able to come back to tie and eventually beat Cormier and his team on a draw to the button. Game four for Cormier was a very close affair that came down to the final end. Again, some misfortune in the later ends cost Cormier and they ended up losing, eliminating them from Sunday play.

Due to a lower number of teams in the spiel this year, some rinks ended up with a draw that saw them only have to play two games and then jump directly into play on Sunday morning. The Coralie Arye rink was one of these teams. They lost a game on Friday and a second on Saturday but were playing on Sunday in the Jack Pink Event.

On Sunday morning, the Ayre rink won and moved onto the championship game in their division. The MacDonald rink ended up losing a tight game in the morning to be bounced from the Westville division but ended up in the championship game of the Tweed Division. Both Ayre and MacDonald won their games on Sunday afternoon and took their division championships, Coralie winning the Jack Pink Event and Wally winning the Tweed Division.

While Schooner rinks competed at the Ship Hector, two other Schooner teams were playing at the Sydney Curling Club in the Bling Fling in the rings, a women's only spiel. Frances Ford skipped one team with Julia Cormier, Georgette Sparkes and Bernadette Cormier while Lynn Kelly lead Cheryl MacKinnon, Debbie Murray and Yvonne Donovan on a second Schooner squad. While neither Schooner rink made the podium, they put on a good showing and had good games throughout the weekend. The ladies were treated to a wonderful dinner put on by the Sydney Club and there was entertainment on Saturday night.

Overall a great weekend of curling for all the Schooner rinks. Congratulations to the winners and thank you to all the curlers who represented the Schooner Club proudly.

Learn to Curl

The Schooner Curling Club, in partnership with the CBRM Recreation Department and the Taste of Winter Festival, will be hosting three Learn to Curl events over the next two months. These events are sponsored by the CBRM and are free of charge to those who want to take part. The next event will be held on Friday, February 15 starting at 6:30pm and is open to everyone 16 years and older. This your last chance to learn more about curling before the start of the Scottie's Tournament of Hearts in Sydney. After that, there are two more Learn To Curl Events scheduled in March, one on Saturday, March 9 at 7:00 pm and is again for anyone sixteen plus and one on Thursday, March 14 at 11:00 am for anyone under 16 years of age. This last event is during March break.

These events are open to everyone in the designated age groups and all you need is a clean pair of sneakers for the ice and a desire to learn and try one of Canada's signature sports, Curling. Plan to join us. No registration is required. For more information visit the CBRM Taste of Winter website at <http://cbrm.ns.ca/taste-of-winter.html>

Fundraiser

With an early winner in the most recent Chase the Ace resulting in lower than expected revenue, the club needs to find other ways to raise money to help offset costs so we can remain financially strong and not have to put added burden on the membership with higher costs. To that end, the Schooner executive is thinking about once again partnering with caterer Tommy Young and resurrecting the spaghetti dinner fundraiser. Back in the day, was the main fundraising effort of the club for the season. Details are still being worked out but it is tentatively set for some time in March. Watch the Schooner website and the club's bulletin board for more details once they become available.

Snowball

Don't forget to play the Snowball anytime you are at the club. It's open to members only and runs during any regularly scheduled curling league event. It only costs $2 to play and we have already had a few big winners, most recently when the jackpot grew close to $200.

All members are assigned a number on the membership list posted at the bar. On any night that the Snowball is running, members can sign in and pay the $2 entry. While you don't have to be present to win, you must be at the club on the day of the draw to sign in, you can't have someone else sign you in on your behalf or sign in for any future draws ahead of time. If the number drawn belongs to a member who is signed in for that draw, they win the jackpot. If the number drawn is for a member who is not signed in, the jackpot carries over and "snowballs" into a bigger jackpot. Each entry means $1 more toward the total prize while $1 goes to the club. Do don't forget to sign in for the Snowball the next time you curling and you may win a great cash prize!

Fun Night

All Schooner members are reminded that there has been an additional Fun Night added to the schedule for Saturday, February 2. Originally there was no Fun Night scheduled for February, mainly due to the Scotties being held this month, but at January's Fun Night there was good interest from a number of the attendees to have one so we went ahead and scheduled it.

Fun Nights are open to everyone so round up your family, your friends, co-workers, whoever and get down to the club for a great time. For only $7 ($4 for Schooner Club members) you get to try curling, eat delicious pizza and maybe even get a chance at winning a great prize. There's no better deal in town for a night of fun. If you haven't tried curling before or are relatively new to the sport, we will supply all the equipment you need and the instruction. You just need to have clean sneakers for the ice. The next Fun Night is scheduled for Saturday, March 16 and will be a special St. Paddy's Day edition of Fun Night. Last year, this was very popular and many people who attended got into the St. Paddy's Day spirit and wore their green. Plan to join us again and help make Fun Nights a success.

Tuesday Tarabish

Tuesday night tarabish continues at the club and continues to be popular. The games are open to everyone and are single entry. Partners rotate throughout the evening and points and wins are tallied on an individual basis. Once the designated number of games are played, the points are added up and the winners determined. These games are lots of fun and the bar is open to purchase refreshments. Take a chance at the even split and enjoy some free snacks. Join us any Tuesday. The games get going at 7pm.

It's been a long wait but we are finally in the home stretch to what promises to be a great Scotties Tournament of Hearts. Many provinces and territories have recently crowned champions that will be joining Jennifer Jones's Team Canada rink and those that have not will be doing so very soon. Janine Bodner's rink out the Iqaluit Curling Club was the first to be confirmed and will represent Nunavut. Alberta will have Chelsea Carey from the Glencoe Curling Club, Manitoba is represented by Tracey Fleury out of the East St. Paul Club and New Brunswick will be represented by Andrea Crawford out of the St. Andrews Club. The list goes on with Kelli Sharpe from the Centre and St. John's Curling Club carrying the banner for Newfoundland, Kerry Galusha represents the North West Territories and curls in the Yellowknife Curling Club, PEI will have Suzanne Brit from Charlottetown, Quebec has Gabrielle Lavoie curling out of the Victoria Jacques Cartier Etchemin CC, Robin Silvernagle will represent Saskatchewan and has her home club as the Two Rivers Curling Club and Nicole Baldwin will represent Whitehorse and curls out of the Whitehorse Curling Club. Nova Scotia will be represented by Jill Brothers out of the Mayflower after she defeated Mary Anne Arseneau in the finals of the NS play downs, stealing two in the final end and winning the game by one point. Brother's is no stranger to the Scotties having represented Nova Scotia in the event three other times, 2007, 2014 and 2016. She is also a former Canadian Junior champ and World Junior silver medalist in 2004. Brothers is joined by teammates Erin Carmody, Sarah Murphy and Jenn Brine. All three have some level of Scotties experience with Carmody having been a Silver medalist in 2010 when she played representing PEI.

Also interesting to note, Gabrielle Lavoie and her foursome are a junior age team, the second year in a row Quebec has been represented at the Scotties by Junior curlers.

British Columbia, Northern Ontario and Ontario representatives were not yet decided at this time. One of the two Wild Card teams has been chosen and that is Kerri Einerson out of the Gimli Curling Club in Manitoba. Einerson lost the provincial crown to Tracey Fleury but will be a force to contend with if she is successful in the wild card game. That game goes on Friday, February 15 and is free to go to.

All volunteers now have their volunteer kits that include clothing, a hand book, a souvenir pin and more. All volunteers should also have their assignments for the week as well. The Schooner Club and the Sydney Club have partnered to do a 50/50 draw at all of the draws during the Scotties. Volunteers are needed to sell tickets and a signup sheet has been posted at the club where you can put your name in a time slot that you can work selling the tickets at the venue.

All ticket options for the 2019 Scotties Tournament of Hearts are still on sale online and at the Center 200 box office, including single draw tickets for the final weekend. Full event packages are $399 plus fee and get you access to all draws for the event including tie breakers and playoffs. Mini packages include opening weekend for $99 and Championship Weekend for $189. The Opening Weekend package includes all five draws for Saturday, February 16 and Sunday, February 17 while Championship Weekend packs start on Friday, February 22 and will include any tie breakers and playoff games, including Sunday's championship game. Day packs will get you all draws on any given day and are priced at $49-59. Single draw tickets are also available, ranging in price from $17.50 to $37.50 per game depending on the day and time of the draw. All prices include HST but not facility fees. All tickets to the event are also good for access to the Heartstop Lounge that will be located at the Joan Harris Cruise Pavilion. If you would like to plan your ticket purchases around the draws for team Nova Scotia, their preliminary round draws have been assigned – draw 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, and 13. Final preliminary round match-ups will be determined once all of the provinces and territories teams are declared via the provincial and territorial play downs.

The entertainment has been announced for the Heartstop Lounge and include such local favorites as Pretty Archie, Slowcoaster, Carmen Townsend, Arron Lewis and more. A schedule is available on the Scotties 2019 website. A tentative schedule is also up for autograph sessions and "Up Close and Personal" session where fans get to ask the curlers questions in the Fan Zone. Keep an eye on the Scotties website for more information and for a more definite schedule of when you can meet your favorite curlers.

Get your tickets and plan to take part in this huge event for the area. The Scotties will be much more than just a curling event. There will be lots of entertainment at the Heart Stop Lounge and there will be lots happening off the ice with an interactive fan zone and lots of opportunities to interact with the curlers at meet and greet events all week.

For more information and up to date news you can visit the Official Scotties 2019 website at <https://www.curling.ca/2019scotties/>
